SWAHILI WORDS IN ENGLISH

Asante

This is the Swahili word for "thank you," and is used in much the same way as it is in English, to express gratitude.

Sawa

This translates to "okay" or "fine" in English, and it is used as a general acknowledgement or agreement in response to a statement, much like how "okay" is used in English.

Basi

This Swahili term is often used to mean "enough" or "that's enough." It is usually employed to emphasize a point or bring a conclusion to a discussion.

Teaching Staff Changes for September 2024

Dear Parents/Carers,
I am writing to inform you of some staff changes for September 2024.

We are saying goodbye to Mrs Vorster and Mrs Day who have worked at Shaw for 17 and 19 years respectively. Both of these staff members have worked tirelessly to teach and support many of your children over the years, but both have decided that it is time for a change. I know that both Mrs Vorster and Mrs Day are excited to redirect their careers and have a little more time with their own families.

Mrs Leaman, who has been with us for 6 years and teaching the children in 1DL for the past year, is also leaving for pastures new.

Miss Drake will also be returning after taking time off to have her second baby and we are all looking forward to welcoming her back to fill the gap left by Mrs Day.

Finally, we have a new Assistant Headteacher from September and I am pleased to be able to tell you that Governors have appointed Mrs Newland, who some of you will remember, to the role.

Thank you again for your continued support. All staff wish you a happy and healthy summer and look forward to seeing you all again in the new academic year.

Regards
Ms Kimpton
Headteacher

Autumn Attendance

Our Autumn Attendance Challenge will begin on Monday 9th September. This will run until the end of term. All children with 100% attendance and in school on time will be awarded with a certificate.

"In to Win" is our new attendance reward. At the end of each week all the children who have been in school on time for that week will have their names added to the In to Win wheel. During KS2 and KS1 attendance assemblies the wheel will pick a weekly winner who will receive a certificate and have their name added our newsletter.

SCHOOL WEBSITE

Our school website is packed full of amazing things:

- SCHOOL DATES
- CONTACT INFORMATION
- CLASS PAGES
- HELP AND SUPPORT SERVICES
- NEWSLETTERS
- SCHOOL LETTERS

And much more...

Why not take a LOOK!

School Start times:

IN CLASS FOR 8.40AM

We have had lots of children arriving late for school.

This causes disruption to the class when children arrive late, also needing adults to come away from working with children to collect!!!

Please can we ask parents and carers to help us by ensuring all belongings are labelled clearly with their child's name. When children leave their belongings around the school they can then be returned.

We have lots of unnamed uniform which if not claimed is disposed of.

We currently have some lovely pieces of uniform so before you spend lots of pennies on new uniform we could help you save money.

If there are any items you require please email:
